

WORKSHOP CUM SEMINAR ON BEE KEEPING AND ITS PRODUCTION

ANNOUNCEMENT

Beekeeping is a profitable business in Pakistan and plays a vital role in food security. In the light of above scenario, a seminar cum workshop has been arranged by Department of Entomology with kind cooperation of Sindh Forest Department Hyderabad. A seminar will cover the aspects of beekeeping in Sindh province, expected cost and profit, possible challenges and marketing and at the end practical training or demonstration will be carried. It will help undergraduate and post-graduate students in order to develop their skills regarding apiculture and its significant importance in the country. All teachers, students, researchers and private firms are cordially invited to attend this precious event as per under given schedule

Key spokesperson for lecture

1. Dr. Shafique Ahmed Memon
Department of Entomology,
Lasbella University of Agriculture,
Water and Marine Science, UTHAL.

Resource Person for Training

2. Mr. Abdul Haq
National Forest Coordinator
Sindh Range and Forest Officer,
Govt of Sindh.

Organized by

Department of Entomology, Faculty of Crop
Protection, Sindh Agriculture University Tando
Jam

Venue:

Seminar Room, Tuesday 26th March, 2019
Department of Entomology,
FCPT, SAU, Tando Jam

Day and Date

Time: 9:00 am to 12:00 noon

Focal Person

Dr. Agha Mushtaq Ahmed
Assistant Professor,
Department of Entomology
03312711959
aghamushtaq@gmail.com

Registration Fee

Rs. 500.00 PKR